

Please, Please, Please. I live in Northern Virginia and spend 2 hours a day in my car. I bought satellite radio because it offers minute by minute traffic updates for the DC area. This service is far more reliable and up-to-date with traffic information than anything on regular AM/FM radio. If it weren't for satellite radio I probably would have lost my job already. Please, please, please do not restrict satellite radio from offering local traffic information.